

Berlin and Co. Business

Bosses are Born

Bootcamp

Jersey.

15th April, 2017

Cost: $660.00 (intro price)

Running a Small Business: To understand how to run a small business you first need to think like a Boss and not a leader. A Boss is a person who demands it, and a leader is a person who asks do it. I have seen so many entrepreneurs who think they have a great product and they start to sale it online. However, just because you have a great product does not mean you have what it takes to run and operate a small business. A Boss is Born is a 12 week program that will help you understand how to operate your new business venture.

In this bootcamp program you will learn various of steps on how to run a small business.

Includes:

- Bi-Weekly accountability check-in with homework assignments, and research projects.
- Weekly small group brainstorming session to troubleshoot challenges, get advice, and ideas.
- Access to operating a small business A - Z.
- Customizable one-to-one finding your niche confessional.

Topics are subject to change without notice.